ONE DAY ONLINE INTERNATIONAL SEMINAR ON UNDERSTANDING INDIAN HERITAGE THROUGH CULTURAL STUDIES

A One day International seminar was organized by IQAC, the Department of Philosophy and the Department of Sanskrit on 21st may 2024.. The chief speaker of the seminar was Professor Rebecca Manring, Indiana University, Bloomington, USA.

All the teaching and non teaching staff members of the college along with the students of Patrasayer Mahavidyalaya actively participated in the seminar. The objective of the online seminar was to know about Indian Heritage through Cultural studies. Professor Manring talked about Indian mythology by giving examples of animals in Ruprama's dharma and the goddess on her tiger. She explored the relation between practices, everyday life, material, economic, political, geographical and historical contexts related to Dharma Mangal.

She further talked about the problems of the philosophy of religion as they arise out of classical and contemporary discussions related to varied religious traditions across the state of Bengal.

Every participant actively responded to her speech.

The seminar was beautifully concluded by the concluding remarks by Dr Ritushree Sengupta ,IQAC Coordinator and the warm vote of thanks by Principle Dr Santosh Koner.
